Dear Joe:

On behalf of United Way of the Capital Region, please accept my sincere thanks for providing personnel to tape our United Way Idol contest and Pacesetter Kickoff Event on Friday, July 14, 2006, as well as the great news coverage.

As you know, this event helps increase people's awareness of United Way and also helps us get the campaign off to an entertaining start.

Thanks again for taking time from your busy schedule to help us!

With best regards,

Dear Joe:

On behalf of the United Way of the Capital Region, I would like to thank you, your production and news staff, and on-air personalities for your continued help and support.

As you know, our 2005 campaign was another success for us, but our success would not have been possible without the exposure your station offers us. WHTM continues to provide the excellence in leadership that led to your recognition last year.

Thanks again for everything you and your staff do to help us help people in need in the capital region.

With best regards,

Dear Val:

On behalf of our United Way and the Women's Leadership Network, I would like to thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to MC our reception at the Civil War Museum on October 18th.

The reception was a solid success, with over 135 women in attendance.

These events continue to provide a great opportunity for women involved in the Network to learn more about our United Way, as well as make new friends and renew old acquaintances.

Your contribution was central to our success. Thanks again for being with us. We deeply appreciate your support.

With best regards,

Dear Mr. Lewin,

On behalf of Hospice of Central Pennsylvania, I wish to thank you very much for promoting our April 14, 2007 Decade of Caring Gala. The ABC27 Public Service Announcements by Chuck Rhodes and others were very successful in raising the awareness of the public about our event. The evening was a sell-out, and a number of tickets were purchased by individuals as a direct result of seeing the PSAs on TV.

The purpose of our Gala was to mark the 10th anniversary of opening the Carolyn Croxton Slane Hospice Residence. This beautiful 6-bed home in a serene location on Linglestown Road provides around-the-clock care for individuals who are unable to remain in their own homes during their terminal illness.

We ask those who use the Residence to pay a per diem fee if they are able to do so. For those who cannot afford this fee, Hospice of Central Pennsylvania absorbs the cost of their care. The proceeds from the Gala will be committed to Hospice's Community Caring Fund to help underwrite these unreimbursed costs at the Residence.

Our guests enjoyed an evening of fine dining, pleasant music and an excellent speaker, Mitch Albom, author of Tuesdays with Morrie and For One More Day. The event was also successful in terms of raising a substantial amount of money for our Community Caring Fund. Chuck Rhodes, our emcee, did a superb job as always – his great personality and quick wit are real assets in dealing with such a full night as we had.

Thank you again for your kindness in serving as our media sponsor and providing such great advertising. In so doing you helped support our mission and the patients and families we serve.

Very truly yours,

Joe —

Mr. Joe Lewin
WHTM TV 27

Harrisburg, PA 17110

Dear Mr. Lewin:

I am writing to acknowledge the generous support that Hospice of Central PA has received from Chuck Rhodes for nearly 20 years. As the CEO of a not for profit hospice agency, I have had the pleasure of being able to call upon Chuck Rhodes to participate in many of our community events. Chuck has become a permanent part of our Tree of Light Celebration for the past 19 years and has acted as the Master of Ceremony at many of our agency's other events. Additionally, Chuck Rhodes served as the Honorary Chair for our Doorway to Caring campaign which raised funds that expanded the capacity of our hospice residential facility. In 2004 Chuck Rhodes was honored by Hospice of Central PA for his significant contributions to our organization.

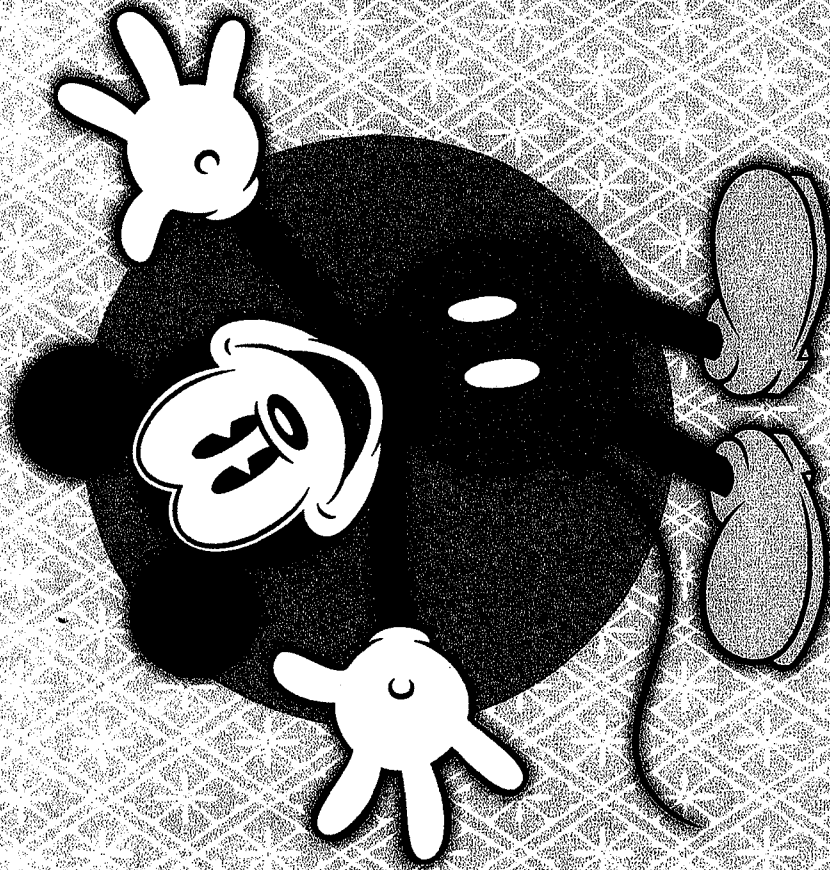

The consistent and warm support of Chuck Rhodes and WHTM TV are crucial to our community outreach and have allowed us to better serve the members of our community who are in need of end-of-life care.

Very truly yours,

Karen M. Paris

Dear Joe,

On behalf of the "Harrisburg Invasion 2007" staff, we wish to thank you for your participation during our 5th annual Block Party. The event was held July 14 from noon to 3 p.m. at the corner of 18th & Derry Streets.

Eight churches from across the state took part. More than 3,000 people attended the FREE event. Besides services, there were giant inflatables, food, games, face & finger nail painting and entertainment. Abc27 News Reporter Dave Vagnoni served as emcee. Former Dallas Maverick Chad Varga was the featured speaker. He also hosted a basketball clinic for 60 inner-city children.

Again, we hope you will consider participating in next year's "Invasion" Block Party. The dates are July 15-20, 2008. Remember, this event would not have been possible without your hard work and dedication.

We would love to hear your feedback. Please feel free to email me any comments on how you thought the event went at mstricker@abc27.com

Dear Betty,

I would like to thank you very much for the help you have given Cub Scout Pack 51. We truly appreciate the great items you donated for our Pinewood Derby. They are outstanding, and were be wonderful prizes for the boys. I can't tell you how happy we were to receive your donation!

Thank you to you and WHTM Channel 27 for your work and commitment to the community. The help and care means a lot to our group. Your support helps carry on the tradition of Scouting for our boys. For that, we cannot thank you enough.

Once again, thank you very much for your help. We really appreciate it. If I can ever help you with anything, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Dear Mr. Lewin:

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and Staff of Junior Achievement of South Central Pennsylvania, I want to thank you for allowing Flora Posteraro to participate as a JA volunteer.

We are extremely grateful to companies for allowing their employees to be involved. It is this dedication to our community that is helping to inspire and prepare young people to succeed.

This year JA will reach over 33,000 students in our community. We could not do this without your support.

I hope that you will continue to encourage your employees to get involved in this wonderful cause. We truly are making a difference in children's lives.

Thanks again for your support!

Sincerely,
